PACT OFF???

News has just reached us that the renegade Orlocks "The Pact" have been severely mauled by The Knights of The Flame.

The Pact have recently been very open about their "religion" of Chaos worship and had enraged Father Josef with their heretical nature.

No one from The Pact itself was around after the battle to comment and to be frank I don't think we should talk to them as they are in this papers opinion heathen enemies of our beloved emperor.

3 more of the Chaos cultists bodies were added to the Redemptionist church cages last night, one of which was alive upon the Knights return, but was submitted to torture and subsequent execution for being a heretic.

JADE BROTHERHOOD SAVED?

Much mystery surrounds a mysterious benefactor that paid off the Jade Brotherhood's Guilder bounty price. All that is known is that the payment came from an up-hive account that bore a signature from House Ko-

Iron. Why this uphiver has "saved" the Brotherhood we cannot speculate and due to communication with up-hive being impossible we cannot get any word from House Ko-Iron.

Unrelated to the pay-off is the fact that the Jade Brotherhood walked unharmed from an encounter with the Knights of the Flame leading to much speculation as to who is working with who?

ANOTHER GUILDER ASSASSINATED!

Last Issue we reported on the assassination of Guilder Ignomamous Vreck who was shot from long range by a sniper between the eyes. We received a report that another Guilder Krieg Yasser has also been shot in the same way in the settlement of Sumpool, this time however a calling card was left. The card was a black card that had one word written on it "Revenge".

Sumpool's watchmen "The Cyber-Raptors" have told us that they suspect that the assassin possibly a bounty hunter who has been betrayed, they also suspect that the murderer is heading to Wal's Hole for reasons unknown.

As we receive more reports we will tell you as much as we know, but for now the people of Wal's Hole are left with another Mystery to solve.
