Interview with the "Twisted Sisters" leader Miss Nunn

After trying for ages to get hold of someone from this gang to give me an interview. I was kidnapped by 3 girls, then blind folded and taken to a bar (well it sounded like one). On arriving there I was taken into a small room, my blind fold taken off and told to sit down. A few minutes later a very tall women walked in followed by 2 mad looking ladies with large guns. Introducing herself as Terri she sat down next to me and produced a flask, she poured the contents (what looked like blood) into two glasses and gave me one and told me to "drink". The liquid had a taste I can't begin to describe.

Putting a spiked boot on to the table she turned to me and said "You're the one looking for the twisted sisters!?!". Nodding, all I could say was; "yes" due to the high heeled boot that she had now placed at my throat. "Well it's your lucky day then!" she replied. "I want to talk about the so called bully boys; Violencia and their actions of late, trying to set us up. That's why I have granted you this time with me, but don't piss me off or my girls will have to deal with you!" and with this there was the sound of safety being taken off very large caliber automatic weapons.

Trying to hold back the vomit from the hideous drink I pulled out my note pad and began to ask questions; I asked her what she thought of "Violencia" and what she replied I unfortunately can't print as it was a string of obscenities that by decency laws I am not allowed to print, but from what I could make out she thinks they are a bunch of hooligans with about as many brain cells as a rat (and that's the polite version!). The new Ratskin group that has arrived on the scene was the point of my next question and her reply was; "they make good scouts but that's about it". It got even worse when I mentioned the "Mad Professors", she looked at me and said "Don't make me laugh the "Mad Professors" you mean the "Mad Idiots" who can't shoot a gun to save their lives!?!"

Giving me a baleful stare she said; "That's it for now as we have to go, we will call for you again!" and with that she got up out of her chair calling for her girls to "get him!".

To cut a long story short I ended up blindfolded again and dumped outside the Tribune's office, will they come for me again only time will tell?

KING OF SPIRE CAUSES MASS INJURIES!

Guilders who have been inconvenienced by recent gang warfare in Wal's Hole decided to take matters into their own hands this week by organizing a "King of the Spire" game outside of town to keep 4 of the main troublemakers busy. The game is a complex affair of groups trying to get to the highest point and pressing a button without getting thrown or shot off there by their opponents! Taking part was "The Twisted Sisters", "Crosius Arcanum", "The Mad Professors" and surprisingly "The Silverskins". The Ratskins were offered amnesty and a place in the game after recent disruptions caused by them tampering with machinery. The game was a hard fought affair which looked to be won by the Ratskins, but a one in a million shot from "The Professor's" "Lucky" Sue stopped their aspirations. The Escher were next up the top only to be felled by more lucky shots but this time from the Cawdor, this didn't stop the lady in question as she got up twice more only to be gunned down, finally being silenced by an autopistol shot. By this point the last Delaque was taken out of the game and the Ratskins followed shortly after, leaving only the Cawdor and Escher to face off just under the button. With bravery unbecoming his size one of "Crosius" Juvies (I believe "J" is his name.) shot and knocked out his Escher opponent leaving him a free run to the top while dodging bullets.

The prize was nothing short of magnificent, and was revealed to be a newly found Hoard of Archeotech, enough to keep the Cawdor going for

Guilders failed to include "Violencia" and their wrath was met out in town, the object of their anger was a newly arrived Escher gang who were scattered back out of town quickly without injury.

Lemansky a ganger with "Violencia" had this to say; "So those damn Guilders want to ignore us? The chose to not pay attention to us when we could have been the greatest Watchmen ever? They'll regret the day that they spat on "Violencia", this town will be ours and not a single gang, group of Guilders or Arbites can stop us! They want war? We will bring war!"

Guilders refused to comment on the statement.
